The background is a vibrant, multi-colored gradient transitioning from light green and yellow at the top to warm orange and red at the bottom. It is adorned with numerous soft, glowing bokeh circles of various sizes and colors. Delicate, white line-art illustrations of various flowers and leaves are scattered across the scene, including a large leafy branch in the upper right, several large circular flowers with intricate petal patterns, and smaller, simpler flowers and leaves. A few thin, white, curved lines sweep across the composition, adding a sense of movement and elegance.
